

| Project Name                                 | Location of Project                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Hectares |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Tucklesholme QuarryStaffordshire Wildlife Trust | Tucklesholme Quarry,off Station Lane,Barton under Needwood,East Staffordshire                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | The project will instigate effective land management through fencing selected areas of the site to enable low density (conservation grazing) livestock grazing to take place.Installation of visitor management infrastructure including footpaths, signage and bird hides.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 10              |
| Bees and TreesSMBC                              | Olton Jubilee Park,Lyndon Road, Olton,B92 7RQDorrige Park,Grange Road,Dorrige, B93 8LJLavender Hall Park,Lavender Hall Lane,Balsall Common,Solihull, CV7 7BNElmdon Nature Park,Elmdon Park Rd,Solihull B92 9ELBrown's Coppice,Woodlea Drive,Solihull, B91 1PJColdlands Wood,Naseby Road,Solihull, B91 2DRElmdon Coppice,Damson Parkway,Solihull, B92 0PLCut Throat Coppice,Woodside Way, B91 1HHA34 Stratford Road,and environs,Shirley, Solihull | This project will deliver enhanced habitat to woodland and grassland sites along with the urban environment of Stratford Road and environs.Completion of the first stage of the project Woodlands works has taken place. A programme of thinning and coppicing has been undertaken at the six woodlands sites to enhance the natural environment.Second stage is to complete the grassland works at 3 sites using green hay and wildflower seeding to enhance/improve grassland.The final stage will consist of Street Tree Planting along the Stratford Road to enhance the very limited semi-natural habitat at present. | 23.85           |
| Langley Hall Park LNRPond Restoration -SMBC | Langley Hall ParkLocal Nature Reserve,Swanswell Road,Solihull,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | The project will enhance habitat to the pond, stream and associated bankside vegetation.This will be done by removing the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 0.25            |

|                                                    |                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |     |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|                                                    | B92 7EU                                                                                                                          | silt form the pond, reprofiling and re-naturalising of the current stream and the management of bankside trees and shrubs.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |
| Love Your River Cole - Warwickshire Wildlife Trust | Cole Bank Park Local Nature Reserve (LNR), Chelmsley Wood, Solihull & Kinghurst – Hatchford Brook, Fordbridge, Solihull, B37 6QY | The project will deliver additional habitat and biodiversity enhancement work and thus establish a series of improvements over a 1 mile length of the river Cole. This will not only promote landscape connectivity and ecosystem function, but also improve the health and status of the riverine habitat, with wide ranging ecological and social benefits.                                                                       | 6.7 |
| Damsels and Dragons SMBC                           | Elmdon Park, Tanhouse Farm Road, Solihull, B92 9EY                                                                               | This project will deliver 550 metres of enhanced watercourse and 2.80 hectares of improved habitat to the woodland, grassland and bankside vegetation adjacent to the brook. The works will include concrete slab removal, construction of wetlands / scrapes and management of bankside trees and shrubs                                                                                                                           | 2.8 |
| Cherryholme Staffordshire Wildlife Trust           | Catton Hall Estate, Walton upon Trent Derbyshire DE12 8LNNote – the site is in East Staffordshire, not Derbyshire            | This project will improve biodiversity by altering the course of the River Trent to reinstate a palaeo channel and at the same time create an island refuge for wildlife. As an additional benefit the materials that are extracted from the workings will enhance the biodiversity of the adjacent lakes by creating more diverse underwater habitat. The project will benefit fish, amphibians, invertebrates, birds and mammals. | 8.8 |

|                                                          |                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Bleak House,StaffordshireWildlife Trust | Land known as'Bleak House'Off A5190 andStables Way,Norton Canes,Cannock,WS7 1YL | Bleak House is a SSSI that has been assessed as "unfavourable declining" due to "lack of corrective works – inappropriate scrub control". This is the worst rating before the site is classed as 'destroyed'. The aim of the project is to reverse this decline and bringing the site back into 'favourable' condition. | 110 |
|----------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|